

CHAIR WORKS AT ASHBORO

Supreme Court of the State Engaged in Argument of Two Murder Cases.

WAS ARRESTED IN WYOMING

War Department Expert Reports Favorably on Troops, But in Opposition to Camp Sites.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 24.—A charter was granted this morning to the As-shboro Chair Company, of Ashboro, the capital being $10,000 subscribed and $5,000 authorized. The principal incorporators are J. O. Redding, Dr. Cox, W. J. Arm-field, Jr., and about twenty others.
Arguments in the Supreme Court today were in two murder cases, one on appeal from Ashe and the other from Watauga county. The Watauga county case is State vs. Clarence Potter, who was convicted of the murder of A. W.
Howell two years ago and sentenced to be hanged. His brother, Boon Potter, was his accomplice and fled the country.
When a few weeks ago he was brought back from Wyoming, having, when arrested, been passing under an assumed name, but carried in his pocket a purse with "Boon Potter" printed on it, and in the purse a clipping of Governor Ay-cock's proclamation offering a reward for his arrest. He is to be tried next week.
GIVEN SIX YEARS.

The Ashe county case alleged was Garfield Clark convicted of feloniously killing Charles Stanberry in July, 1932, while a number of young men were in a drunken brawl. His sentence is to six years in the penitentiary.

There is general gratification at the settlement of the fight over the election of dispensary commissioners, which has disturbed the Raleigh Board of Aldermen the past several weeks. And the conclusion of opinion is that a better board than that selected yesterday could not have been chosen.

Judge Purnell, of the United States Court, has ordered a 20 per cent. dividend to creditors in the bankruptcy case of D. Abruzzi Mount.

MILITARY REPORT.
The adjutant-general has received the report of Major F. H. French, who was detached by the War Department to inspect the three encampments of North Carolina National Guard the past summer. The report is very favorable as to the various camps, but unfavorable as to the locations of camps as permanent camps.

They were at Morehead, Greensboro and Asheville.

The Southern completes Train Yards at Pomona.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) GREENSBORO, N. C., Nov. 23.—The Southern Railway has completed the new train yards at Pomona, two miles distant from the passenger station here. Six tracks are laid and installed, and three more tracks are ready to be laid. Grading for the whole yard is completed, and the work is thoroughly well done, and the yards are conveniently constructed and arranged for shifting and making up trains, according to the latest modern improvements.

The tobacco sales here last week were by far the heaviest of the season, and prices considerably better.

President Samuel Spencer, of the Southern Railway, came in on his private car No. 100, this morning, and went out to Friedlands to spend a week shooting birds on his game preserves there.

Another Southern Railway dignitary Vice-President Andrews, was here today on his private car, No. 101, going North from Raleigh.

COUNTERFEITING.

A Socialist Farmer Arrested for Making Queer Money.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., Nov. 24.— Mr. Samuel Hanser, a prominent Socialist and a well-to-do farmer of this county, was arrested this afternoon on the charge of having in his possession tools and materials for making counterfeit money.
The officers found a plaster plate die for making $20 gold pieces of 1893 date in a cupboard at his home.

Hanser claims that the tools and material were brought to his place by William Morgan, a white man who is in jail here awaiting trial in the Federal Court on the charge of counterfeiting.

The arrest and charge against Hanser produced a sensation, as he has always been regarded as a honest man, one who would never be suspected of making bad money.

Hanser gave bond for his appearance at trial before Commissioner Beckertide next Tuesday.

WHITE MURDER TRIAL.

Judge Allen Refuses a Change of Venue—Other Cases.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SALISBURY, N. C., Nov. 24.—In Rowan County Court to-day counsel for the defendants, Thomas and Chalmers White, who have been arraigned for killing Russell Sherrill, moved to have the trial heard in Davidson county, presented thirty affidavits in favor thereof. The State presented thirty affidavits in rebuttal and asked that the trial be held in Rowan, where the killing occurred. Judge Allen sustained the trial motion, and ordered the case tried in Rowan.

E. B. Glenn, of Winston, has been employed to assist in the prosecution.

Judge Montgomery, for the defense, moved to have the trial continued until motion will be answered by Judge Allen Wednesday.

To-day the grand jury found a true bill against Lon Gray for murder in the first degree for killing Moss Brown, colored, while out hunting.

DEAD IN DITCH.

Uncles of Negroes Who Were Lynched Are in Trouble.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SALISBURY, N. C., Nov. 24.—While out strolling about one mile from Salisbury, Sunday two young men named Cannup found the dead body of a colored man in a ditch. The remains proved to be those of Noah Craig, about fifty-five years of age, and he is claimed to have been killed by a mob of whites. The body was found in a ditch, and the owner of a horse, which was found standing near the spot where the body was found, fell into the ditch.

Henry Cowan and Emma Lynch, all colored, have been landed in Rowan jail on the charge of being involved in the burning of the Southern Applications have been filed with the Salisbury Board of Aldermen for the issuance of three licenses in this city and about seven other applications for license are to follow. Mayor Boyden is quoted as saying that the distilleries, if allowed to operate in Salisbury, will be required to comply with every law, and that the owners must keep their premises so cleanly and maintain quiet to the extent that even the nearest neighbors will not be annoyed by the existence of a whiskey distillery.

PEACE-MAKER KILLED.

Mr. Cresswell Shot While Separating Father and Son.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SALISBURY, N. C., Nov. 24.—Particulars of the killing of Mr. George Cresswell, a prominent farmer of the extreme northern portion of Rowan county, are to the effect that then and there Bradshaw, colored tenant of the farm, gave a corn husking Thursday night. During the evening the negroes, who were father and son, respectively, quarreled and a fight ensued. Please Bradshaw, the son, was in the act of shooting his father when Mr. Cresswell, who was passing and had stopped as a spectator, attempted to separate the combatants and make peace between them.

Young Bradshaw fired the gun at his father. It is claimed, but the latter knocked the barrel down and the load took effect in the leg of Mr. Cresswell, inflicting wounds from which he died Friday. Bradshaw escaped at once, and has not been apprehended.

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE IS RECOGNIZED.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Nov. 24.—William McKinley West, the five-year-old son of William West, near Hope, Morgan Mills village, was burned to death while playing in the fire. The child's clothing ignited and before help could reach him he was beyond relief, and died in a few hours.

There was a big meeting of the citizens here last night for the purpose of reorganizing the Chamber of Commerce.

Since the organization of this body six years ago the town has rapidly advanced and is now in more prosperous condition than at any time during the last half a century.

The Chamber of Commerce has done most efficient work in the past, and the object of the meeting was to enlist the support of all classes and condition in the community and to give a new impetus to the growth and development of the town. The engagement of Miss Ellen Underwood, of this city, to Dr. David G. Mc-Kettrick, of Jacksonville, Fla., has been announced. Miss Underwood is a noted Southern beauty of much charm and grace of manner, and Dr. McKettrick, an old Fayetteville boy, is a young physician, already a member of the American Medical Association. Both Miss Underwood and Dr. McKettrick come of an ancestry of which the old North State is proud, and are both great social favorites, and are receiving the congratulations of a host of friends, both here and abroad.

EGG-THROWING CASE.

Seaboard Air Line Must Pay $4,500 for Indignity.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 24.—In the case of H. W. Seawell against the Seaboard Air Line, the Supreme Court delivers an opinion dismissing the petition of the railroad company to rehear the case on appeal, thereby leaving the company no alternative but to pay the damages awarded at the trial in Moore county.
The case grew out of the "eggings" of Seawell at Shalby during the campaign of 1900, when he was candidate to the Republican-Populist ticket for lieutenant-governor. The court holds that the road is clearly liable for the throwing of eggs at Seawell and other persons, who, instead of seeking to protect Seawell from the attack made on him, aided his assailants, two of them even throwing a number of eggs.

The Grays have sixty-five men, on roll and their average attendance since orcent. The regulations require that every company in the State shall have more than fifty-one members at all times, and the average attendance shall not be less than 85 per cent.

In addition to the inspection by the assistant inspector-general of Virginia, the militia is also inspected by a regular army officer detailed by the Secretary of War once a year.

The two handsome medals, which were in possession of the old company of Grays, have been turned over to the new company, and as one of the medals is awarded to the best drilled man in the company, the medal is a gold one offered by Mr. A. D. Harding, the well-known jeweler, in this city, and bears the inscription: "The Grays, Petersburg, Virginia, Company No. 16, U. S. R. P. Semi-Annual."

Major Joseph T. Parks, of Berkeley; Captain J. C. Kaufman and Captain H.
Schoenbarker, of Norfolk, and Lieutenant J. Taylor, of Portsmouth, will be judges.

be served the men at which it is ex-

METHODIST CONFERENCE

Preliminary Exercises by Methodist Historical Society.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SALISBURY, N. C., Nov. 24.—The North Carolina conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will convene in St. Paul's Church in this city, to-morrow morning, with Bishop A.
Candler, of Georgia, presiding.

The preliminary exercises took place yesterday when the Methodist Historical Society met in St. Paul's Church. The annual oration was delivered by Rev.
J. N. Cole, of Wilmington, who selected as his subject "The Life and Labors of Rev. A. Norman," who died during the year of the conference in Willing-ton a year ago. His address was a literary and historical gem, and was listened to with rapt attention.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ASHEVILLE, N. C., Nov. 24.—The trial of Dr. J. V. Jay, who was accused of murder, will begin to-day. The entire morning session was taken up with the selection of a jury to try the case, and the venire ing tried for is the murder of a woman on October 17th, when he killed his three children with a claw hammer.

ALGER MURDER TRIAL.

Was Beastly Drunk When He Killed His Sister-in-Law.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LURAY, VA., November 24.—Rapid proceedings were made in the Alger murder trial to-day. The burden of the testimony offered by the defense was to the effect that Alger was heavily drunk when he killed his sister-in-law, Mrs. Annie L.
Alger.

Nearly all the witnesses are mountaineers and came from a section of the State where there are large numbers of distillers, and in consequence of a number of them being under the influence of liquor, Judge Bouton has ordered the sheriff to promptly arrest any one found drunk.

The prisoner still maintains an indifferent air, and is apparently one of the least concerned in the court-room about the outcome. The case is being practiced by Captain R. S. Patton, while Mr. R. P.
Leedy is defending Alger.
